First Sunday of Advent - November 27, 2016

Dear wonderful and faithful people of our One In Faith Community,

I am writing this article on Tuesday in anticipation of our celebrations of Thanksgiving on Thursday and our entry into the wonderful Season of Advent on Sunday. I am writing in the aftermath of the hernia surgery I had on Friday. With the surgery being successful, perhaps you can imagine that at the forefront of my mind is Thanksgiving. This was my first hospital visit in 62 years and I can only say how impressed I was: what a SUPER group of people we have working at the clinic and hospital. They are certainly a caring, considerate, compassionate and respectful staff!

As I awaited surgery in pre-op with Fr. Ken Thielman having just left after celebrating the Anointing of the Sick with me, I looked about the room at all the monitors and other medical equipment available. Although I bemoaned the surgery to come, I began to think how many people in our world would give their last chicken or cow (I was thinking of the people I had met while in Africa) to be in my position. And I gave thanks to God. I then began to think of all the doctors and nurses and community leaders (past and present) who have or who continue to make this amazing healthcare facility possible and available here in Melrose. And I gave thanks to God. I then began to think of the wonderful people of the surgical staff who were preparing for my surgical procedure. If you remember, Friday's weather was a blizzard and yet, here were these people, Dr. Dorle and all those surgical staff, forgoing concerns of being home or getting home – they were there for me. And I gave thanks to God!

So, my Thanksgiving 2016 will be quite unique. But I would guess all of our Thanksgivings are such if we realize the blessings of God that surround our lives.

Speaking of "special blessings" is our upcoming celebration of Advent. Advent, as we know, is a time of preparation; a time when we prepare our hearts in a special way for the coming of Christ – now and for always. The following simple quotes from this Sunday's readings are words that are worthy of reflection: From Isaiah: ". . . the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it;" From Paul: "Let us then throw off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light . . . put on the Lord Jesus Christ;" From Jesus: ". . . stay awake! So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

The Son of Man will come? Yes, certainly in the future - but also in the present. During Advent, perhaps we might look for His face not only beyond some distant horizon but just as importantly, in the loving, caring, compassionate people who have "put on the Lord Jesus Christ" and walking beside us, steady us and take us to a new side of life.

Happy Thanksgiving and a Blessed Advent!

Fr. Marv
